

Shout Out

Remembrance Day Service

lest we forget

About 200 supporters paid their respects in front of the Angle of Peace War Memorial Clock on the Semaphore Foreshore for the 2013 Remembrance Day ceremony which commemorates the cessation of hostilities in The Great War, which took place at the 11th Hour of the 11th Day of the 11th Month, 1918.

With Remembrance Day falling on a weekday 100 students from the Le Fever Peninsula Primary School were able to attend the service, for many it was their first look at a Commemorative Service. In the week leading up to Remembrance Day the students learnt a little about the history and the Poppy with many of them wearing their own Poppies that they had Made.

The Fort Glanville Historical Association Marched On and performed the Firing of the Volleys, President Graham Wilson was MC. for the ceremony and Shane Edmonds recited the Ode of Remembrance.

With all the formalities over everyone returned to the Sub-Branch for refreshments and entertainment with Ray on the piano and to look at the Bravest of the Brave Exhibition.

At War For Christmas remember at christmas time

Hundreds of thousands of Australians have spent Christmas at war: freezing in First World War trenches, as prisoners of war of the Japanese in WW2, or on reconnaissance and ambush operations in Vietnam.

Even today Australian soldiers find themselves spending Christmas far from home, on operations in Afghanistan.

Soldiers are not forgotten at this time of year, and efforts have always been made to bring a little joy and a decent meal to those serving, or those recovering from wounds.

For Christmas 1915, the Australian Comforts Fund Committee distributed 20,000 boxes containing handkerchiefs, cigars, cigarettes and matches to men in camp in Egypt. Many had just returned from Gallipoli.

In a letter home in early January 1916, Sister Letitia Moreton of the Australian Army Nursing Service described the efforts that had been made for wounded men recovering at the 2nd Australian General Hospital in Egypt :

“We gave our patients out at Ma’adi Hospital a very nice little Xmas. A very nice dinner, roast turkey, chicken, ham, plenty vegetables, plum pudding, claret cup, beer, soft drinks, sweets, etc. They did enjoy it, poor things. The Drs helped us with it too, one carved the turkey and ham while the other gave out the drinks. The place was rather nicely decorated and everyone enjoyed the day.”

Staff and patients at No. 14 Australian General Hospital, Egypt, decorated for Christmas. AWM B00682

HOY-HOY!

HOY-HOY! Started out as a trio based on the early blues of the Texas band, The Fabulous Thunderbirds, who were themselves fans of earlier artist's including Slim Harpo. Now as a trio with Mauri Berg at the helm, the music is tougher, so the, "we're not loud, you're soft", catch phrase applies.

The Peter Jenkins Band

Peter Jenkins first gained recognition in the 80's for his work with Adelaide SA band Le Rox, renowned Perth 3 piece hard rock band Trilogy and from a brief stint with Angry Anderson's Rose Tattoo. The end of the 80's saw Peter compete in the Rebel Yell "Long live the lead break" competition and achieve a place in the top 10 national finalists. In the 90's while back in S.A. Peter was a member of "Big Things Flying" an original project that produced 2 CD's was critically acclaimed
